SOUTHEAST REGIONAL COUNCIL TRAINING

April 3, 2017 | Sheraton Atlanta | 165 Courtland St NE, Atlanta, Georgia

WHAT IS THE DOD SOUTHEAST REGIONAL COUNCIL?

The Southeast Regional Council (SERC) is one of seven geographically organized Regional Councils for Small Business Education and Advocacy, sponsored by the Department of Defense (DoD) Office of Small Business Programs. The councils provide a single forum for Small Business Professionals to train, share and disseminate information on the Federal Small Business Programs, with a focus on collectively addressing issues of importance to small businesses.

WHO ARE MEMBERS OF THE REGIONAL COUNCILS?

- Small Business Professionals from government
- Small Business Professionals from industry (SBLOs)
- Resource Partners (PTACs, MBDCs, etc.)

Note: Small businesses are not members of the councils.

WHY SHOULD I ATTEND SERC'S TRAINING EVENT?

Training will be provided by Subject Matter Experts from the Small Business Administration (SBA), DoD and the DoD Procurement Technical Assistance Program. Discussions include legislation, regulations and changes affecting small business programs.

The afternoon will be spent discussing subcontracting program compliance, to include the preparation and review of required subcontracting reports.

Don't miss the opportunity to network with respected experts.
