SMALL BUSINESS (SB) FUNCTIONAL INTEGRATED PRODUCT TEAM (FIPT) CHARTER

I. PURPOSE

The Small Business (SB) Functional Integrated Product Team (FIPT) mission is to advise and support the career field Functional Leader (FL) in carrying out his/her responsibilities.¹ As appropriate, the FL will task the FIPT to perform support activities and will direct the work of the FIPT.² The SB FIPT provides stakeholder input into acquisition workforce learning asset and training requirements, Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act (DAWIA) certification standards, and related workforce professional development activities.

The FIPT:

- Provides the career field Functional Leader (FL) with requisite information, perspectives, and recommendations to guide decisions related to the DoD Small Business workforce including:
 - Competency Management
 - Human Capital Strategy
 - Maturing Core Plus Framework
 - Qualification Standards
 - Continuous Learning Module requirements and development
 - Utilization and maintenance of knowledge sharing and other learning assets
 - Other areas as deemed appropriate, including products, deliverables, and focus areas listed below
- Serves as a forum and clearinghouse for cross-cutting joint service/agency small business initiatives, lessons learned, and issues of mutual interest and concern
- Provides a venue for information and best practice sharing across the DoD Small Business community involved in education, training, development and human capital planning of the AT&L workforce
- Provides recommendations for cross-functional/interdisciplinary collaboration and integration

² Functional Area Charters for the Acquisition Career Development Program, 26 Feb 01

- Identifies opportunities for interdisciplinary integration across the broader DoD functional domains, including identifying appropriate learning assets from other career fields in the professional development of the small business professionals, as well as encouraging the shared use of appropriate small business learning assets by other functional communities.

 - Providing inputs to DAU learning asset development, revision, and future requirements identifications
 - Providing or identifying subject matter expert (SME) support for DAU learning asset developments, including but not limited to course content development, Ask-a-Professor queries, classroom guest speaker requests, and related requirements

- Conveying issues, taskings, and decisions discussed at Small Business FIPT meetings to the appropriate Component or office leadership
- The SB FIPT Advisors are responsible for:
 - Representing their respective Component or office as a focal point for small business workforce issues
 - Conveying issues, taskings, and decisions discussed at Small Business FIPT meetings to the appropriate Component/organization leadership
 - Providing support to FIPT initiatives
 - Providing or identifying subject matter expert (SME) support for DAU learning asset development, including but not limited to course content development, Ask-a-Professor queries, classroom guest speaker requests, and related requirements
 - Establishing methodologies for communicating small business workforce initiatives to their Component or office, and to key stakeholders
 - Supporting the development and submission of Small Business Professional workforce reports

V. MEETINGS

Meetings will be focused on developing and executing opportunities, facilitating collaboration, maintaining visibility of Department and Component level initiatives, and monitoring workforce metrics. The SB FIPT will convene quarterly, or at the discretion of the Chair.

FIPT Operations:

- All meetings are non-attribution
- Decisions will be reached by consensus whenever possible. However, in the absence of consensus, final decisions will be made by the Executive Secretary (Chair) and/or the Functional Leader
- Appointed representatives shall be empowered by their Components or organizations to act on their behalf, and will provide timely feedback to appropriate leadership within their organizations on discussion topics and decisions made at FIPT meetings
- Once developed, each Small Business Professional course will be reviewed annually to ensure currency and relevance standards are met

- The FIPT Executive Secretary and DAU will post FIPT meeting minutes, agendas, attendance sheets, and briefing charts on the Small Business Community of Practice on the Acquisition Community Connection (<https://acc.dau.mil/sbfipt>).

Subgroups:

The Functional Leader and/or Executive Secretary may establish subgroups to address particular issues or initiatives that will enable small business workforce development, including standards, processes, and technologies. Subgroups may consist of FIPT Members, Advisors, or other assigned representatives to effectively address issues and initiatives. Progress and outcomes of the subgroups are reported to the FIPT for action.

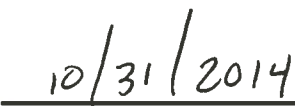

VI. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Charter is effective as of date of signature. This Charter will be reviewed and approved by the Small Business Functional Leader every two years; however, it may be modified sooner if deemed necessary by the Parties.
